Twisted skirts, and blouses that are partly pulled out of the skirt, are uncomfortable as well as unattractive, says Home Demonstration Agent Lorraine Blackwood.

A tape has been designed to prevent skirts from twisting and blouses from pulling out. It is a "new-on" strip of neoprene sponge rubber. It has a backing of cotton tape for each stitching to the make of the waistband.

This tape is related by the yard just as ribbon, Miss Blackwood explains. It is resistant to dry cleaning solvents and soapy water, and will not lose its effectiveness after repeated pressing or home ironing. This should prove very satisfactory for both children's and grown-up's clothing.

Father Now Believes in Santa Claus

Patterson, N. J., Dec. 14 — (AP) — Anthony Navarino, who wanted to give his five kids a good Christmas, is 30 years old, but he believes in Santa Claus.

Until yesterday, Navarino was a skeptic. Bills were piling up. The electricity and gas had been turned off. He had no job. And, federal control of the national credit.

That did it, he decided. The only way he could think of to get money was to offer one of his eyes for sale. He had them surgically transplanted.

Today, though, that's all just a

Southerners Haul Out Righters Flags

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 14 — (AP) — Southern governors hauled out their familiar States Rights banner today after adopting a pioneer program for regional education.

Gov. Fielding I. Wright of Mississippi and Adj. Gen. Milton A. Beckford of Maryland planned to outline a fight against proposed federal control of the national credit.

Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas was to argue for state control of land oil reserves. And Gov. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, States Rights candidate for president in the November election, was to brief the governors on the South's long fight against alleged freight rate discrimination.

The Southern governors' conference and its subsidiary, the Southern Regional Council for Education, yesterday approved with it public discussion of a $1,736,000 initial budget for the first two years of regional education.

States legislatures must approve the scheme and make appropriations before the nation's first regional educational plan will begin operating next fall.

When regional operations move into full pace after four years, the had memory. After reading of his plight more than 50 persons and business firms contributed to the flood of gifts that poured into his drab, four room flat.

Now he has: A job (the president of a glass company paid him a personal call to offer him work. Four other firms also offered him jobs).

A complete layette for his three months old daughter, Anna (from a woman who lost her child at birth).

Two tons of coal for the winter (from a coal company).

A station wagon load of preserved foods and staples (from the volunteers of America).

Two chickens and 15 quarts of milk for the children (from, respectively, a grocer and a milk company).

Besides that, an anonymous donor offered to pay all back bills plus the rent through March "to carry him over the winter."

No Santa Claus?

mined number captured in border skirmishes yesterday.

The San Jose regime has charged the rebels are led by Rafael Calderon Guardia, a former Costa Rican president who was routed by the current military junta last May in a revolt which followed a disputed election in February.

The national union party of Otilio Ulate last Thursday, won the election for a new constituent assembly. On the same day, the military junta reported, the rebel Calderon entered Costa Rica from Nicaragua.

A government announcement said the rebels quickly seized the town of La Cruz, 30 miles from the border, and still hold it.

A government announcement also said three enemy planes appeared over Costa Rican territory yesterday. Two, identified as C-47s, were sighted over Liberia about four miles from the border.

Luis Manuel Debayle, Minister as a United Nations delegate said Costa Rica's complaint to the security council was "unjust and absurd."

Debayle said that "if an inquiry commission is named it will be proved that the Nicaraguan government is clean of any charge."

In Washington U. S. government officials said it is extremely unlikely that troops of any kind—either American or an international brigade—would be dispatched to restore order in the central American republic.

These officials denied emphatically that any thought is being given to sending U. S. marines to Costa Rica because of the country's importance to the defense of the Panama canal.

The council of the organization of American states which was set up under the Rio de Janeiro pact to settle inter-American disputes considered Costa Rica's appeal in Washington Sunday. The council of 21 western hemisphere foreign ministers has asked both Costa Rica and Nicaragua for further information at another extraordinary session at 3 p. m. today.

Costa Rica has not formally asked for military assistance. But Ambassador Mario Esquivel in Washington yesterday told a reporter "we are not asking for military assistance and all kinds of help because we have no army."

The Costa Rican army has officially abolished about a week ago.

Guam Attack Fatal to U. S. Girl

Guam, Dec. 14 — (AP) — Attractive Ruth Farnsworth died today of shock and a beating administered by a sex maniac.

Search for the killer — or killers — who kidnapped and raped the 27-year-old San Francisco woman was intensified with discovery of a pair of paratrooper boots in the jungle near the spot where she had been left to die.

Naval officials said the boots bore possible blood stains, and the name of the owner.

The boots and other evidence are being sent to the FBI in Washington for study, the navy said.

A missing sandoal, which authorities hoped would help track down the killer, was found near the scene. The strap had been torn off when it was ripped from Miss Farnsworth's foot. Her other sandoal earlier had been found near an oriental curio shop where she worked nights.

Several men were questioned by investigators, but no one was held. Rewards for information leading to identification of the girl's attackers were offered by the government and the proprietor of the shop.

Miss Farnsworth was kidnapped from the shop Saturday night. She was found unconscious yesterday in a jungle thicket 200 yards away. Her clothing was torn and disheveled. She died early this morning.

The shop and the spot where she was found showed Miss Farnsworth put up a desperate struggle.

Investigators under the direction of Lt. Commander James P. Hackett, navy assistant police chief, said they were convinced she was kidnapped and killed by a band of sex fiends. All commanders on Guam were directed to check their men for possible scratches or cuts. Indications were Miss Farnsworth put up such a fierce struggle that her attackers probably did not escape unscathed.

Miss Farnsworth was a former WAC, working on Guam as a heavy civil employee. She took a night job in the curio shop to augment her income.

She was engaged to marine Sgt. Sterling McGinnis, also stationed on Guam, and had planned to return home in February to be married.

gram of plant expansion" after those profits have been drained off. How, he doesn't say. But he told the United States News that where the steel industry "of its own free will" doesn't care to invest the necessary capital "to expand, the government should step in and do it."

All this seems just as one-sided, short-sighted and wrong-headed as the most rugged individualism of those "economic royalists" whom Mr. Roosevelt used to exorcise. And, like economic royalists, the Murray program would almost surely create a wave of public indignation that in the end would insure those whom it was designed to favor.

For this reason, as well as for others, Mr. Murray's influential views seem to us to be about the best argument yet advanced against reviving the Wagner Act, intact and unamended.

The AFL's meeting today was mainly to set up a 14-month program of political education, financed by 16-cent contributions from each AFL member. Joseph P. Keenan, director of the AFL political league, expects to raise at least $500,000. He said that in the three weeks since the convention, a total of $125,000 has been collected.

This money is to be spent on "educating" voters, and persuading workers to pay poll taxes, register, and be ready to vote in 1950.

DDT Develops New Type of House Pest

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Editor

New York, Dec. 14 — (AP) — A new breed of house flies is beginning to plague Americans—and the flies were produced by DDT, the great fly-killer.

The new findings in the use of DDT was reported to the American Association of Economic Entomologists today by W. V. King and J. B. Gahan of the United States Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

These new flies have developed resistance to the killing powers of DDT, despite the fact that it is the most potent single insect killer ever known. This resistance was not unexpected.

In the summer of 1947, the entomologists said, there were reports of DDT failing a little. This year the reports got more numerous and more serious.

The bureau gathered house flies from numerous parts of the United States and tried killing them with various concentrations of DDT.

The flies that survived those places where DDT had been used in previous years were often harder to kill than the flies whose ancestors had never walked in the stuff.

The flies that figuratively laughed most at DDT came from the bureau's laboratory at Orlando, Fla., where they had been specially raised to see whether they would get used to the stuff. It's easy to do. Just give enough to kill most of the flies. Save those that are left. They survived because they were harder to kill in the first place. They pass this toughness on to their offspring, and presently you have a new breed, and need a new poison.

King and Gahan said the government scientists are working with three new fly poisons now.

Policeman to drunk: "What nationality are you?" Drunk: "I'm half Scotch." Policeman: "What's the other half?" Drunk: "Hiel Seltzer!"

budget will be $2,434,000 per year. The revolutionary plan, drafted by educators in lengthy conferences and approved by the governors, would be restricted at first to medical, dental and veterinary training.

Dr. John Steelman, assistant to President Truman, said the federal government must cooperate to expand education and scientific research to strengthen American democracy and preserve "the safety of not only America, but of the world."

The largest educational item was $600,000 to be contributed by 14 southern states for Meharry medical school for Negroes in Nashville, Tenn.

The governors advocated $355,000 for regional veterinary school at the University of Georgia, Oklahoma A&M, Auburn and Tuskegee Institute for Negroes.

A $200,000 fund for the first two years was approved for regional dental education for white students. Eight states without dental schools would pay $15,000 each to send students to other states under the cooperative plan. The eight are Arkansas, Florida, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Alabama.

Each state would be assigned a specific quota for veterinary, Negro medical and dental students to send to regional schools. The states would pay $1,500 for each medical student and $1,000 for veterinary students they send out of their borders.

J.O.Y. Class
Holds Christmas Party

The J.O.Y. Sunday School Class of the First Baptist church met in the private dining room of the Hotel Barlow, Monday night at 7 o'clock for their annual Christmas banquet.

The Christmas dinner was served to twenty members from a long white table centered with a holly and pine centerpiece, with white taper, with greenery extending to the end where miniature hours of singing, lonely pain had gone by. Tortured hours. She was somewhere in the house but she was not beside him.

Then the door opened and he knew she was looking at him. What a look! Would she never stop looking? What was she thinking? "You are such a long time dying?" Or, "My own love, are you not any better yet?"

Which was the true thought, which was the true she, and which his false dream of her? She had entered the room. She was coming toward him. She was bending over him. He could feel the warmth of her breath.

His eyes opened and fixed on her with a strange, melting softness. Like the eyes of a wounded dog, begging his release. She turned her away, then irresistibly they drew back again. "Why are you looking at me like that, my dear? What are you trying to say?"

He motioned to her with one finger to bend closer. She inclined her head a little the better to hear what he had to say.

He reached up falteringly and stroked the fringe, the silken blond bangs that curved before her cool, snowed forehead.

Then he struggled higher, onto an elbow, as if eastward by the ebb tide that was leaving him behind so rapidly.

"I love you, Bonny," he whispered fiercely. "No other man has ever loved me from first to last, from start to finish. And beyond. Beyond, Bonny; do you hear me? Beyond. It will not end. I still, but it will not."

Her face came nearer still, slowly, uncertainly, like that of one dipping toward a new experience, feeling her way. Something had happened to it. It was happening to it. He had never seen it so soft before.

There were tears in her eyes. It was no illusion; he saw them. "Will a little love do, Lou?" "Any amount."

There was a moment in which he loved her. And this is it. And the kiss, unforced, unsolicited, had all the latter sweetness of the unattainable yearning, of a love that might have been. And he knew, his heart knew, it was the first she had ever really given him.

trees with silver bells were arranged. Mrs. Charles Graham, president, presided over the meeting. The Class presented Mrs. Basil York teacher with a beautiful corsage. The members brought their contributions for the Orphanage this Christmas.

Mrs. Aaron Tollett, told the Christmas Story. "The Other Wise Man" by Henry Van Dyke, Mrs. Charles Reynerson was in charge of the various games played after the program. The meeting was closed with the group singing "Silent Night" followed by the closing prayer.

One girl is very intelligent, and I love her because she is my mental equal. One girl has a stupifying figure and I love her for her looks. One girl is a little thing, but I love her because she is a knockout. A fourth girl is very sweet

Fair Enough

By Westbrook Pegler

By King Features Syndicate.

Of all the rackets which have enjoyed the protection and the shake-down and taxing privilege conferred on crooks by the Wagner act, the most despicable fraud has been the hoodlums' and laborers' union of the American Federation of Labor. One must split hairs to distinguish between the constitutions of the hoodlums', the musicians', the teamsters' and the mine workers' unions but, as a racket, the hoodlums', on performance over a long term, wins the championship.

To emphasize the power of the union corruption in our government, I must call your attention again to the fact that Judge Vincent Brogna, of the superior court of Massachusetts, the highest court in the commonwealth, and a man regarded as a decent citizen and a good judge, according to the de-based standards of the Roosevelt revolution, served for several years as "attorney" and "international counselor" for the racketeers who controlled, indeed constituted, this racket. His junket to the British trades union conference at Bristol, England, by way of Milan, Italy, as counselor to Joe Moreschi, the accompanied by Mrs. Brogna, has been reported here Moreschi's mission was strictly honorary and he required no legal counsel. Yet, Moreschi and the gang tapped the treasury for $10,000 for "expenses" in a time of terrible unemployment and poverty and local racketeers held orgies in New York, Boston and other centers of Moreschi's power to raise further funds for the long spree and de luxe tour of the ruling gang.

The condensed "report" to the membership covering a period of 31 years from 1911, which was published in 1942, gave absolutely no accounting of the $10,000. It was not even mentioned in any of the naive "accounts." These consist simply of columns headed "receipts" and disbursements." The "report" claims that more particular accounts were rendered from time to time to the various local unions. But most of these local unions were rackets, too, whose members were hoodlums. The locals had absolutely no power. The rank and file had, so to speak, even less power. So any "accounting" to these inferiors by the mob was a condescension, not a duty, and unreliable. These racketeers were Brogna's social friends and professional clients.

It must not be forgotten that Judge Brogna can be presumed to have known exactly what this constitution provided. A lawyer does not engage to serve an organization without examining its charter and constitution. Brogna is a Democrat and, if it is any comfort to him, he may be described as a typical New Deal political union attorney. He has some honorable friends in public life in Massachusetts who vouch for him up to the point to which he takes the shilling of this unspokeable affront to the American concept of rights and freedom under law. From that point, Brogna is on his own. These friends have told me that he has been a knowing judge as far as they know. They do not know, however, whether he has ever ruled on any cases involving the equation between unions and their subjects or between unions and the public. and thus far, neither do I. If he had brought to the bench the ethics which permitted him to represent the hoodlums' under their constitution, the law as to unions as laid down by Judge Vincent Brogna would have been a non-entity. For that constitution hits you right in the eye with its first article which says:

"This body is sovereign and independent of its component parts.
It shall consist of the general president (Moreschi) (the (six) vice-presidents and the general secretary-treasurer." During the national conventions the duly elected delegates of the locals shall join that exalted consistory, but for 31 years there was no convention and in 1932, when Brogna is first mentioned in the merger published records, it had not had a convention in 21 years. He hired out to serve an outfit which purported to be a union of working men. But any lawyer on reading that constitution could have seen that for 21 years it had consisted entirely of the general president and the other bosses of this exalted racket.

Only two of them, one V. De Faleo, a vice-president, and Achilles Persson, a vague, mysterious power whose origin and background are unknown even in the rival circles of unionism, were holders from the official set of the last previous convention in 1911. All the rest, Moreschi and five of the vice-presidents, had been "elected" by the other members of the autogenous directorate in private meetings.

The workmen have absolutely no rights or powers under the constitution of this union which has levied tribute from a million laborers in 45 years and, even now, holds conventions not often more than once in five years. Judge Brogna knew this meant that by 1932 a man who had been fined outrightly and expelled in 1911, already had waited 21 years for a chance to appeal for justice to the highest authority in the union, namely the convention. If the man lost patience and went to the public courts in a law-suit, he could be turned away under rulings of the New Deal judges who held that a member of such a "voluntary association" must "exhaust his remedies" within the union before he could be heard in court. In the long run, a man who suffered injustice at the hands of the big mob in 1911 had to wait 21 years for

Western Schools End Winter Meet on Grid Schedules

Chicago Dec. 14 — (AP) — Western Conference officials ended a highly successful winter meeting last night by mapping football schedules from 1950 through 1952 and entering Michigan State into championship grid competition in 1953.

Michigan State accepted as a 10th member earlier will be permitted to seek league titles in all other sports as soon as it is confirmed. A three-man committee is to investigate the Spartans' athletic structure to assure conformity with Big Nine policies. This move formally was completed in time for the East Lansing school to be listed in all future schedules made up in the conference's 1949 meeting.

Kentucky, Triumphant, Heads East

New York, Dec. 14 — (AP) — Kentucky's national collegiate basketball champions move into the east today, one of four teams in the impetuous victories.

The rangy sharpshooters from the blue grass country almost doubled the score on Arkansas last night at Lexington to take their fourth straight, 76-59.

Six-second Groza slipped in 18 points and other members of the Olympic team showed top flight form.

The Wildcats play Holy Cross in Boston Thursday, and St. John's of Brooklyn, one of the eastern cage powers, in Madison Square Garden Saturday.

Meanwhile, Notre Dame chalked up its second victory in three starts against Western conference teams by whipping Wisconsin, 60-54. The veteran Irish team, which has lost only to Illinois, ran up a 12-point lead in six minutes.

The Western conference had better sailing against other outside opponents.

Illinois topped Oklahoma, 73-69.
Purdue rallied from an 11-point deficit at the half to beat Kansas, 47-46; and Indiana won its fourth straight by humbling Drake, 73-53. Michigan beat Pittsburgh 62-44.
Purdue's triumph over Kansas set a precedent. Never before had Phog Allen's Jayhawkers lost to a Western conference team. It was Kansas' first loss in three starts this season.

Oklahoma outscored the Illini from the floor but failed from the free throw line.

Loyola of Chicago, one of the unbeaten teams, scored its fifth straight victory by topping Chicago Teachers, 60-52.

Hogs Back From Rough Road Trip

Lexington Ky. Dec. 14 — (AP) — The University of Arkansas basketball team off to one of the poorest season starts in history headed homeward today after a disastrous eastern tour.

The Razorbacks fell 76-59 before mighty Kentucky here last night for their fourth straight loss and the third defeat of their pre-holiday tour. Arkansas' record now stands at one victory — a two-point decision over Oklahoma City University — and five losses.

Arkansas started well, holding the Wildcats to a 7-7 deadlock in the first five minutes. But once the Kentuckians, many of whom played for the U. S. Olympic team, found their range the game was no contest.

The last half score was 40-19.

Alex Groza, six-seven Kentucky center, topped the scorers with 18 points. Teammate Ralph Beard added 15.

Little John Campbell, five-foot, seven-guard led the Arkansas scorers with 11 points. He made five of his markers on free throws.

The Razorbacks previously lost to Long Island university and to Columbia on their tour.

Arkansas will meet Pittsburg, Kan., Teachers at Fayetteville Thursday night.

Indians Get Several New Players

Chicago, Dec. 14 — (UPI) — In a surprising non-cash transaction of the World Champion Cleveland Indians today acquired First Baseman Mickey Vernon and Pitcher Early Wynn from the Washington Senators for First Baseman Eddie Robinson and Pitchers Ed Klemm and Joe Haynes.

The prize acquisition in the deal appeared to be the hard-throwing Wynn, a strapping right-hander who had been sought by various American League teams for the past two seasons.

Vernon the 1947 American League batting champion dropped out considerably at the plate last season although he still is considered a respectable hitter.

Robinson and Klemm played regularly with the Indians during the past season while Haynes a veteran right-hander was acquired in an off-season with the Chicago White Sox.

Robinson hit .242 drove in 43 runs and hit 16 homers for Cleveland. He led the league first basemen in fielding with a .995 mark.

Klemm who is almost entirely a relief hurler had a spectacular earned run average of 2.02 in the third year in the league, which was topped only by Gene Bearden and Satchel Paige, both Cleveland teammates.

Wynn, who is the condition which Judge Brogna, of the highest court of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, found in the union which he served as lawyer on terms of social warmth with More-schi and the rest of the bosses,

Prescott A. L. Team to Play Here Thursday

The Prescott American Legion basketball team, one of the strongest outfits in this section, will come to Hope for a game with the local Legion team at 8 o'clock Thursday night in the high school gymnasium.

The Prescott quintet has played several college teams, and defeated the strong Henderson State Teachers squad.

A close and exciting contest is looked for here Thursday.

Eagles Had Best Array of Talent

Philadelphia Dec. 14 — (AP) — The figures showed today that the Philadelphia Eagles had the greatest array of individual talent in the National Football league in the 1948 season.

Steve Van Buren the Louisiana locomotive who runs like he's diesel-powered jarred through opposing lines for the greatest total of yards along the ground — 945 yards in 201 tries for a 4.7 average.

Tommy Thompson the Tulsa veteran turned in the best all-around passing record in the league.

Tommy tossed 246 times completing 141 and gained 1963 yards.
His flips were good 57.3 per cent of the time and tallied 25 touchdowns. Only 11 were intercepted.

Joe Muma once of Virginia Military Institute had the top punting

Bearden Best Hurler of the Year

Chicago Dec. 14 — (AP) — Lanky Gene Bearden of the World Champion Cleveland Indians was certified today as the 1948 American League pitching king.

The 28-year old lefty posted an official earned run average of 2.43 to top the circuit and help the tribe take team pitching honors to go with its team batting title of .322. The Indians had a club earned run mark of 3.23 followed by New York with 3.75 Detroit 4.15 Boston 4.26 Philadelphia 4.42 Washington 4.66 Chicago 4.69 and St. Louis 5.01.

Bearden was one of three 20 game winners finishing second in the won-lost percentage among hurlers in 10 or more complete games. His record was 20.7 for .741. Bearden appearing in 37 contests nailed his 20th victory in the unprecedented playoff with Boston for the league flag. His percentage was second to the top 753 booked by Boston's Jack Kramer with 18.5.

Detroit's veteran Hal Newhouser was the league's biggest winner.
The other 20 game winner was Bearden's Cleveland teammate Rob Lemon. He compiled a 20-14 mark for .588 and was second in earned runs with 2.82.

with 21. He lost 12 for a .636 rating and ranked third on the pitching circuit with an E. R. A. of 3.01. record in the 10-team circuit.
Muma punted 57 times for a 47.2 yard average.

Pat Harder of the Cardinals — winners of the circuit's Western Division — repeated as scoring champion with a 12-game total of 110 points built up on six touchdowns 53 points after touchdown and seven field goals in 17 tries.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.

New York Dec. 14 — (AP) — The next time a representative of an eastern college beefs about organized baseball snatching college talent he should be told impolitely and firmly to go soak his head in ice water. The recent action of the Eastern College Athletic conference in ruling out the Vermont Northern League and other summer baseball circuits makes it virtually impossible for a kid who wants to play ball to get in more than eight or nine weeks of spring competition. The ECAC rule now forbids a collegian to play on "any team if there is payment to players for salary or living expenses either directly or indirectly."

That's just an invitation to a good ball player either to take himself to more liberal college or to sign up with a minor league club.

Broader View

The same eligibility ruling apparently applies to other sports.
That of course would rule out "horseshoe circuit" summer basketball. Tennis players might get away with accepting the eight weeks of on-the-cuff play permitted by the U. S. Lawn Tennis association.

NAMED TRACK COACH

Waco, Tex., Dec. 13 — (AP) — Jack Wilson, star of Baylor football and track teams in the early forties, has been named track coach at Baylor.

One box of popular soap flakes can fill a five room house with suds, the like of which hasn't been seen since the gay 20's when something went wrong with the home-brew.

Just to Show the Life of a Coach Is Pretty Rough

Los Angeles Dec. 13 — (AP) — Three weeks ago UCLA students carried football coach Bert LaBrucherie on their shoulders and cheered him; today UCLA was seeking a new coach.

LaBrucherie and his entire staff resigned last night and the UCLA board of athletic control accepted the resignation "with appreciation for the services they gave."

The resignations climaxed the most hectic season in the young history of UCLA. At the start of the football year the Bruins came through with an smashing victory over the Stanford team, and then ran out of gas beating only two other weak teams on their 10-game schedule.

The word of LaBrucherie's resignation had hardly become public before talk turned to Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns as a possible successor. Brown, earlier in the year had been mentioned for the job but at that time UCLA ended its football season that the Bruins were considering a replacement of LaBrucherie. The student body was not after his scalp.

But LaBrucherie's resignation after his resignation was accepted: "I saw the handwriting on the wall. That's all there was to it."

Not Interested in Appointment Says Mrs. FDR

New York, Dec. 13 — (AP) — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt says a proposal that President Truman name her secretary of state is "too silly to comment on."

However, she told newsmen last night, "I hope Secretary Marshall will not retire, for the good of the country and the good of the world."

The president's widow made the statement in answer to questions as she arrived by plane from Paris, where she served as a member of the U. S. delegation to the United Nations.

King George Observes 53rd Birthday

London, Dec. 14 — (AP) — King George VI observed his 53rd birthday today, cheered by news that his dangerous leg condition is improving.

But despite the reassuring medical bulletins the royal family plans no formal celebration. The king's birthday, always a quiet family affair, will be more than habitually subdued this year.
